2012

Purpose

The Utah Council for Children with Behavior Disorders annually recognizes an individual who provides services to students with emotional disturbances/behavior disorders. These services can be in a variety of areas including behavior support planning, accessing the general curriculum, individualized instruction, school-home collaboration, transition services, and self-help services. This award will be presented annually at the Utah CCBD Conference.

Nomination Procedures

1. Nominations may be submitted by parents, students, principals, teachers, or other interested individuals.
2. Nominations must be typed or printed legibly on the official form. You may use additional paper if necessary. You may also duplicate the form if necessary. Please use multiple forms if you are submitting multiple nominations. If you are unable to submit a typed or printed form, please call Tony Done at (435) 678-1222 or Glenn Dyke at (801) 604-0689.
3. Supportive materials and letters of support may be attached.
4. Nominations must be received by September 2, 2012, to be considered.
5. The Utah CCBD Executive Committee will review all nominations and determine the award recipient.
